Penske Logistics Appoints Director General & Promotes Sales Executive in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Dec. 17, 2007 – Penske Logistics today announced the appointment of Alejandro Marines as Director General – Mexico, and the promotion of Naieli Garcia to Sales Manager for Penske Logistics Mexico.

Based in Mexico City, Marines leads business development and oversees operations for Penske Logistics Mexico. He has 17 years of logistics industry experience with companies such as DHL and UPS. Marines earned a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering from La Salle University in Mexico City. He also holds an MBA from Tec de Monterrey, Mexico City.

Garcia will provide sales support to Marines. She joined Penske in 2004 in the operations department for the General Motors de Mexico account. She brings seven years of logistics experience to her new role, in which she will handle new business development and work with customers across Mexico. Garcia holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from University Automoma de Coahuila.

"Alejandro and Naieli bring significant leadership experience, and will both help us drive additional business growth in Mexico, one of our fastest growing markets," said Vince Hartnett, President – Penske Logistics. "Their track records in the logistics industry, as well as their in-country expertise, will be an invaluable asset to us in this effort."
